Maude Russell FREE Dressmaking College of THIRD FLOOR

After the opening of our Free Dressmaking School, some people undoubtedly supposed this school to be here only temporarily, but we wish to impress it upon you that it is here to stay, at least as long as the women of Tulsa continue taking interest in it, as they are now. This school has been very successful, the students are turning out beautiful work, and on account of the great success we have had here, we are now placing a branch of this school at Sapulpa. The piece goods departments of this store are putting forth every effort to secure the best of material and at reasonable prices for the making of your fall garments, and at the present we have a most beautiful line to select from. So we wish to extend a further invitation to the women and schoolgirls of Tulsa to come and take advantage of this great opportunity.

Gossard Corsets

The Price of Perfection

Let us frankly have something to say on this very practical question of what you will pay for your corsets. You are perhaps aware that there is a tendency toward higher grades. Gossard corsets, with their finer materials and assured precision in fitting, lead to the true economy that comes of better service, and in addition the wearer has the satisfaction of more successful gowning over a figure of heightened stylishness and charm. Consult our expert corsetiers and come in for a trial fitting.

Prices range from ..... $2.50 to $25.00

RECALL MISSOURI OCEAN TRAGEDY

After Twenty-Four Hours of Effort,
Captain Took off Passengers.

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)
PENARTH, Wales, Aug. 29.—The death of Captain Hamilton Murrell of this town recalls a remarkable rescue of 734 lives which he and his men on the steamer Missouri effected in mid-Atlantic in April, 1889.
The Missouri, bound from London to Philadelphia, sighted the Danish emigrant vessel Danmark, from Copenhagen for New York, in distress 200 miles from Newfoundland. She had broken her shaft and had a fearful hole in her hull, into which the water poured while the 455 passengers and 59 crew were helpless. They could neither cope with the in-rushing water nor could they lower the lifeboats because of the stormy weather.

After 24 hours of suspense, the Missouri appeared on the scene and attempted to tow the Danmark to the American coast, but this was abandoned and a course shaped for the Azores. The Danmark, however, soon began to sink, and all her passengers and crew were transferred to the Missouri, a task that required heroic efforts in the storm that was raging. A part of the Missouri's cargo was jettisoned to make room for the rescued, and the rescue-ship herself had a difficult time in making port, much delayed. She was given up for lost and when she finally arrived, with the story of her rescue, it created a great outburst of enthusiasm everywhere. Captain Murrell was feted here and in America in a remarkable manner.

IDOL OF AMERICAN TENNIS DEFEATED

FOREST HILL, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The defeat of Maurice R. McLaughlin, the idol of American lawn tennis, by George M. Church was the feature of the fourth round of the national singles championship tournament at the West Side club yesterday. The elimination of the California comet in his widely heralded attempt to come back after two years of defeat left only three westerners in the field for the 1916 title, as against four eastern stars and a southerner.
George M. Church tonight was the hope of the eastern contingent and the west pinned its faith on the ability of William M. Johnston, victor a year ago, although it was conceded that of the remaining eight players in the tournament R. Norris Williams II and Clarence J. Griffith had a chance.
